

Preparing for the Breeding Season: Sheep/Goat

JULY 23, 2020

6:30PM-8:00PM CST

REGISTER AT: Z.UMN.EDU/GOATSHEEPBREEDING

FREE TO ATTEND

The University of Minnesota Extension will host a webinar on Thursday July 23rd starting at 6:30pm CDT on preparing your sheep and goats for the breeding season.

This webinar will focus on proper management and attention to the health of the goat herd or sheep flock during the breeding season. Doing so can make a noticeable difference in overall productivity and profitability of the herd/flock. Farmers, 4-Hers, ag business professionals who work with farmers, and those interested in goats or sheep are invited to attend.
